Dear Mr. Leparulo and Mr. Wells,

The Albuquerque Convention and Visitors Bureau would be delighted to welcome the 2013 College Table Tennis National Championships to Albuquerque! By bringing this NCTTA event to Albuquerque, you have an opportunity to bring your competitors to an authentic Southwestern destination that will offer hospitable charm and a rich culture for an unforgettable collegiate experience. Albuquerque is easily accessible and all hotels and venues are close to the airport to keep expenses down and help you to attract more competitors. Albuquerque has a local table tennis club, the Albuquerque Table Tennis Club that would commit to providing volunteers and helping set the Championships.

Some important factors to consider in bringing this College Table Tennis National Championship to Albuquerque are:

- Albuquerque is an accessible city with seven major airlines servicing the city and Interstate access via I-25 and I-40.
- All hotels are within 15 minutes or less from the airport making getting around town a breeze.
- Albuquerque has an annual average of 310 days of sunshine and an average annual temperature of 70 degrees.

Here are some other great reasons why I know your attendees will enjoy their time in Albuquerque:

- Historic Old Town (established in 1706) offers more than 150 specialty shops, art galleries and restaurants
- Albuquerque Aquarium, Botanical Gardens, Rio Grande Zoological Park and the Rio Grande Nature Center
- Experience our culture by visiting the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center and the National Hispanic Cultural Center
- Experience the entire city and its breathtaking views by riding the world's longest aerial tram to the top of Sandia Peak
- Albuquerque is the hot air ballooning capital of the world
- Downtown Albuquerque nightlife...restaurants, bars, clubs, entertainment, shopping, and movie theatre
- Nob Hill District and Historic Route 66 ~ with its neon lights, distinctive roadside architecture ~ offering unique dining options, specialty shops and art galleries

IT'S A TRIP®
ALBUQUERQUE

- Albuquerque has more than 15 museums which explore a variety of subjects including the history, the art and the culture. Unique museums in the area also focus on subjects such as hot air ballooning, turquoise, rattlesnakes, the atomic bomb and atomic energy ... just to name a few!

In the event you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at 505-222-4359 or via email at bowerman@itsatrip.org. President and Vice President
National Collegiate Table Tennis Association
2322 5th Street #204
Santa Monica, CA 90405

Dear Mr Leparulo and Mr. Wells:

On behalf of the citizens of Albuquerque, New Mexico, I would like to extend my personal invitation to you to select Albuquerque as the site of your next convention.

The Duke City has much to offer your delegates when it comes to accommodations, meeting facilities and Southwestern hospitality. It also has much to offer your group when the day's work has commenced. As an outdoor enthusiast, I enjoy our spectacular climate that boasts not only all four seasons, but 310 days of ample sunshine. Our city is also home to the best golf in the Southwest, world class visual and performing arts and some of the most unique cuisine in the country. If you have time, I invite your group to explore our city's rich culture and heritage by visiting both the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center and the National Hispanic Cultural Center, or taking a stroll through historic Old Town, the heart of Albuquerque since it was founded in 1706.

Albuquerque is a combination of the very old and the highly contemporary; the frontier town and the cosmopolitan city. It is a wonderful place to both live and visit; I myself have experienced the city from both perspectives. I am well aware that there are many cities able and anxious to accommodate groups of your size. However, what I can tell you about Albuquerque is this: in addition to our unique meeting facilities, variety of diverse dining options and breathtaking landscapes, we consistently outshine our competitors with our most valuable asset: our people. The warm residents and hospitality professionals of Albuquerque are ready to welcome any group - be it an intimate meeting or a large convention - with open arms and assist them in making their visit here one they won't forget.

As Mayor of this great city, I invite you and your group to experience the Southwest at its best. Come and see for yourself why I am proud to call Albuquerque my home. We look forward to serving you.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Berry

Bustling Albuquerque and its environs form the centerpiece of our "Heart of New Mexico." Commonly known as The Duke City, Albuquerque is an authentic, affordable southwestern destination rich in culture, history, art and architecture. Its broad range of experiences will keep your attendees engaged both in and out of the meeting room.

Historic Old Town, "the charm of old Albuquerque," offers 150 shops, art galleries, restaurants and authentic Native American crafts. The New Mexico Museum of Natural History & Science, with prehistoric exhibits and the Lodestar Astronomy Center; Albuquerque Museum, with the largest Spanish Colonial art collection in the nation; Albuquerque BioPark and Albuquerque Aquarium, with its spectacular 285,000-gallon shark tank; and Nob Hill, with its eclectic mix of colorful coffee shops, curio stores, restaurants and clubs located on old Route 66, will entice your guests to do a bit of exploring.

Climb aboard the Sandia Peak Aerial Tramway for stunning city views atop the mountains that form Albuquerque's eastern border. Visit the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center, a museum owned by the 19 Pueblos in New Mexico, to view an exhibition or witness a traditional Native American Indian dance performance. Experience the amazing National Hispanic Cultural Center, dedicated to the preservation, promotion and advancement of Hispanic culture, arts and humanities.

Acoma Pueblo's Sky City nearby is a National Trust Historic Site; and the Turquoise Trail - the "back road" between Albuquerque and Santa Fe- is home to abandoned turquoise mines and ghost-towns-turned art colonies. If you prefer the less scenic route, the Rail Runner Express train runs daily routes between the two cities.

With 310 days of sunshine and bright blue skies, the backdrop to your group's journey is a revitalized city with a history of more than 300 years. Let our beautiful meeting facilities, restaurants, attractions and people offer your delegates a southwestern experience like no other.

We look forward to serving you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Leparulo and Mr. Wells,

I would first like to sincerely thank you for considering Albuquerque for your 2013 College Table Tennis National Championships. We take pride in this unique city and always look forward to sharing our culture, heritage, fantastic climate, recreational opportunities and all of the wonderful things that make New Mexico the "Land of Enchantment."

Albuquerque is a city unlike any other in the world. Albuquerque is not a city that can be described over the telephone, portrayed in a brochure, or displayed on the Internet. Albuquerque is a destination that you must see to truly appreciate everything that makes it magical from our beautiful Sandia Mountains, our nineteen Pueblo Indian communities, our incredible scenic beauty, our diverse cultures, cuisine, architecture, year-round recreation, to the most beautiful sunrise and sunsets that you could ever possibly imagine.

As Chair of the Board of Directors of the Albuquerque Convention and Visitors Bureau, I would like to personally invite you and your convention delegates to visit, explore and enjoy Albuquerque. Rest assured that you are working with one of the finest group of people in the hospitality industry and as such your convention is already on its way to being one of the most successful you've ever held. The Albuquerque Convention & Visitors Bureau has been rewarded by those in the meetings industry with awards of excellence for several consecutive years. These include the M&C Gold Service Award, the Successful Meetings Pinnacle Award, and Association Management's Inner Circle Award.

Also please be assured that success doesn't stop here. You will find that Albuquerque has some of the warmest, friendliest, and most sincere people in the world. It is truly a privilege for those of us that are fortunate enough to live in this wonderful city.

Once again, we would be honored to have the opportunity to host your group and look forward to exceeding all of your expectations.

Sincerely,

James Walther, Chair

Centuries of multicultural heritage contrasted with today's high tech research and development make Albuquerque an unsurpassed Southwest meeting destination.

Many convention delegates extend their visit and bring their families to explore the fascinating surroundings in our mile-high city. Within a few minutes of downtown Albuquerque, visitors enjoy popular sites such as the Albuquerque BioPark, which includes the Rio Grande Zoological Park, Albuquerque Aquarium and Rio Grande Botanic Gardens, historic Old Town, the New Mexico Museum of Natural History & Science, the Albuquerque Museum of Art and History and Explora! Science Center and Children's Museum.

Albuquerque is nestled below the 10,378-foot Sandia Mountains with the silvery thread-like Rio Grande flowing through its central region. A ride up the Sandia Peak Tramway, the world's longest single-span tramway, provides an 11,000 square mile view from the mountain peak. Spectacular sunsets and breathtaking vistas can be viewed from here or any location in the city.

The list of entertainment options is endless including the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center for entertainment, dining, and shopping, pari-mutuel horse racing at The Downs, high-stakes gaming at one of the beautiful new Indian casinos, side trips to Santa Fe, the Turquoise Trail and arts colonies, and nineteen Indian pueblos nearby.

Downtown Albuquerque's ongoing $350 million revitalization project continues to bring new businesses and restaurants to the city's center. New venues to Downtown Albuquerque include specialty and designer stores, unique restaurants, internet cafés and spas all located within a few blocks of the Convention Center and downtown hotels.

We invite you to take a closer look at the irresistible draw of Albuquerque's diverse cultural heritage, scenic beauty, mild climate, delicious cuisine and friendly people. You will discover, like many before you, that meetings in Albuquerque bring record attendance and success.

Willy Leparulo
President
National Collegiate Table Tennis Association

Dear Mr. Leparulo,

I would first like to introduce myself. My name is Geniva Chavez and I am the National Sales Manager for Nativo Lodge. I received a lead for the National Collegiate Table Tennis Association from the Albuquerque CVB and would like to express our interest in hosting your group. I would first like to tell you a little bit about our hotel.

Nativo Lodge reawakens the imaginative spirit of the adventurous traveler searching for a unique venue that pays homage to a rich and vibrant culture while integrating the modern elements of the surrounding city. Architectural detailing is rich in cultural symbolism but modern in expression. Large museum-quality Navajo rugs adorn the hotel's open floor lobby. Colorful hand-carved mural panels featuring Native American symbols and figures complement river rock and pine-bundled columns soaring five stories to provide guests a dramatic experience. Conveniently located off I-25 and San Mateo, this full service 147-room hotel includes restaurant, bar, indoor/outdoor pool, workout facility and plenty of complimentary parking. We are also located just minutes away from all major attractions and venues in the city, including 10 minutes away from Johnson Center at the University of New Mexico.

We currently have April 10-14, 2013 available for your group. We can provide a block of 120 sleeping rooms for arrival April 10th and depart April 14, 2013 and will extend a net group rate of $79 single/double occupancy.

Based upon your room block, your group will have the entire hotel to yourselves and will be entitled to use of all meeting space on a complimentary basis. We have approximately 7,000 sq. ft. of event space and can accommodate up to 250 people. We will also provide our presidential suite on a complimentary basis, as well as one complimentary room per 40 rooms paid.

Once again Willy, I would like to express our sincere interest in hosting the National Collegiate Table Tennis Association. I will stay in touch with the Albuquerque CVB on the possibility of hosting your group in Albuquerque. Thank you in advance for your considerations.

Sincerely,

Geniva Chavez

Their main duties include: data entry, name badge typing, packet assembling, room monitoring, ticket taking, and cashiering. However, they are ready and willing for more challenging roles, with the proper training, of course. Our registrars are $15.00 per hour with a 4-hour minimum (this charge includes all taxes and parking fees).

PUBLIC RELATIONS – Some terrific tools for you to use to encourage greater attendance within your group are available through our press kits, digital image library, videos, and media lists. All of these items provide a vivid view of the full impact of Albuquerque's skyline, historical sites, museums, Albuquerque International Balloon Fiesta and many other exciting components, all of which make it a unique and memorable place to visit. Delegates may also follow us on Twitter at: http://twitter.com/see\_albuquerque and Facebook at: <http://www.facebook.com/visitalbuquerque>.
